

Urban Voices

First Book Party
Thurs., September 30, 1982
at Newark Public Library

PORTRAIT OF MY MOTHER

A Face Finely Chiseled Out of Bronze

Tall, Stateques, Mixed Gray Hair Almost Shoulder Length With A Widow's Peek

Warm Brown Almond Shaped Eyes, High Cheek Bones, Nose And Mouth Finely Chiseled

Full Bosom, Long Graceful Arms and Hands

She Must Have Been A Queen In Her Other LIFE

STRONG And Warm With The Greatest Sense Of HUMOR

This Is My Portrait Of My Mother As Seen Through HER CHILD'S EYES

Anne Gadson Brown

PROGRAM

Newark Public Library

6-9:00 p.m.

September 30, 1982

Invocation

Welcome James Brown
Corresponding Secretary

Master of Ceremonies Myron Rodgers
Recording Secretary

Soloist Denise Howell

Piano Brenda Saunders

Poetry Urban Voices Daphne Benyard
Sam Burgess
Marie Thomas
T. Clay Williams
Zul-Latifi Zahir
Myron Rodgers
Zakkiyah Muhammad
Anne Gadson Brown
James Brown
Marian Crewe

Remarks Thomas J. Alrutz, Director
Newark Public Library

This program is dedicated to Marian O. Crewe, co-founder and vice-president

Advisory Board

John G. Clemons Brenda Costley
Keith Jones Deborah L. Stapleton

Officers and Members

Anne Gadson Brown, President
Marian O. Crewe, Vice President
James Brown, Corresponding Secretary
Myron Rodgers, Recording Secretary
Sam Burgess, Jr., Treasurer
Daphne Benyard
Zakiyyah Muhammad
Marie Thomas
T. Clay Williams
Zul-Latiefi Zahir

“To Touch and Inspire Creatively, Culturally and Spiritually”